1st Annual Amateur Championship

The Jim Hasley Amateur

Honoring the Legacy of a Quad Cities Golf Legend

James W. ("Jim") Hasley's was a lifelong golf professional whose passion for the game and dedication to growing golf in Eastern Iowa left a lasting mark on the community.

Born January 7, 1934 in What Cheer, Iowa, Jim was raised in Williamsburg and ended up relocating to Davenport with his family in 1947. He began by giving pro-bono lessons at Emeis Golf Course in 1965 and by 1971 he was named Head Golf Professional for the City of Davenport's municipal golf courses — Emeis, Duck Creek, and Credit Island – a role he would hold for more than 30 years. Jim was twice named Iowa PGA section Golf Professional of the Year (1985, 2001) and was inducted into the Iowa Golf Association Hall of Fame in 2010.

Post-retirement, Jim assumed the role of Program Director for newly established First Tee of the Quad Cities. He held that role for nearly two decades, helping launch that program and advance its mission to grow the game among youth and inspire the next generation of golfers.

While it's long overdue, recognizing Jim with an amateur tournament seems only right. So, that's what we're doing.
